CROWDED LAST NIGHT.

Music and Dancing Features of th Entertainment-The Guests Entertained.

The Indianapolis Aquatic Club had its new house boat at Broad Ripple in gala attire last night, when the craft was thrown open for the first time to the members and their friends. In the afternoon a number of ladies called and were entertained with music and boat rides, while in the evening dancing was the feature of the entertainment, refreshments being served from one end of the main cabin, which was used for the dancing. The boat was lit up from stem to stern, and around the balconies and on the hurricane deck Chinese lanterns were strung. The orchestra which furnished the music was stationed on the forward galley. The boat was decorated with American flags, two immense ones covering the cabin ceiling and others being looped about the balcony rails. The club pennant is one of artistic design, green and white alternating, with the letters "I. A. C." in gold on the white cross bars. The boat has two twentyfive-foot flagstaffs, the pennant floating from the one forward and the national emblem

In the afternoon the boat was moored against the cool shade of the west bank of the river, and in the evening it was towed back to fts station just north of Broad Ripple Park. Mr. C. B. Fletcher's trim steam launch, the Lillian, one of the speediest boats on Indiana waters, was put at the disposal fof the club's guests during the evening, and it made trips up and down the river carrying small parties. A fleet of boats and canoes was also used by the club members in entertaining their friends, Rear Admiral Brown, President A. V. Fuhrman, of the Cincinnati House-boat Club, and others were among the guests. Mr. John B. and two or three tourist sleepers. feet wide, from balcony to balcony. The stairway which leads to the main cabin goes up from a roomy forward deck. The lower deck is conveniently arranged for storing boats, and one end is partitioned off as a room for lockers and quarters for the swim-mers. The boats are kept on iron racks. In the rear of the main cabin, which corresponds to the second floor of a house, is the kitchen, and also in this end of the boat is the ladies' toilet room. A companion way leads to the hurricane deck, which has a canvas covering over the wood and is surrounded by an iron railing. This "roof gar-den," as the members call it, will accommodate a hundred or more people. Five hundred people would scarcely tax the capacity of the vessel. The interior of the cabin is painted white. The exterior of the boat is in white, with green trimmings. The club membership is one hundred, with a waiting list of almost half that number. The directors will probably meet this week and extend to those on the waiting list all the privileges of the club, except voting, upon the payment of the customary fees. Mr. Fuhrman, of Cincinnati, who has been enthusiastic in aquatic sports on the Ohio river, complimented the club members last night on what they had accomplished. A triurban tournament in aquatic sports be-tween the Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Louisville clubs will be arranged for this

GIRLS' INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.

Thirteen Pupils Were Graduated Yesterday at Tomlinson Hall.

Thirteen girls were graduated from the Girls' Industrial School yesterday afternoon at Tomlinson Hall. Each of the girls wore a graduating gown made by her own hands. Under the rules of the school a girl must be fourteen years old before she is graduated. The graduates were Charlotte Ertle, Grace Hines, Mabel Marshall, May Fanning, Annie Marchisky, Ethel Coatney, Josie Koesters, Annie Engleking, Annie Gainesburg, Clara Stoll, Annie Faber, Hattle Bonsetill, Annie Brown and Lucy Bauer. Rev. William A. Quayle and Mrs. F. A.

Mrs. Blanchard has labored with the school for nine years, and has brought it to a high standard. She announced that the picnic would occur next Wednesday. The children will assemble at Tomlinson Hall at 1 o'clock in the after-noon, and march to the corner of Illinois and Georgia streets, where they will take street cars for Fairview Park. The company has donated the use of the cars, and several merchants have given generously for the amusement of the children. A number of prices were distributed yesterday afternoon. They were presented by Mrs. Caroline Ritter, Mrs. Charles Kahlo, Miss Anna Garhart and Miss Mabel Quayle. A Baxter Bible was given to Lizzie Green, Miss Stiltz's class, for the best sewing books were distributed. Thirty books were given to children in the infant class who

Charles Maguire, of This City, Explains a Chicago Mystery.

A telegram from Chicago was received in this city last night saying that the body of a man had been found in the lake, and that on the first page of a notebook, discovered in the dead man's pocket, was written "Charles Maguire, 430 Pennsylvania street, Indianapolis." A Journal reporter called on Mr. Maguire at his dry goods establishment on West Washington street, and the mystery was soon explained, Mr. Maguire said he was well acquainted with a young man from Cincinnati named Charles E. Poor, who had often made his headquarters at Maguire's store while visiting in this city, and that there was every reason to believe that the body found in Lake Michigan was that of the Cincinnati man. Poor had been traveling for a large shoe manufacturing firm of Chicago up to last fall, when he suddenly disappeared. It was believed at the time by many of his friends that he had committed suicide, as he had been suffering from brain trouble, and had often been heard to say that he would eventually "make way" with himself.

MAY PLAY BALL

City Attorney Says Authorities May Not Interfere.

The city authorities will not interfere with the baseball game this afternoon. In accordance with Mayor Taggart's request, City Attorney Kern gave his opinion in the Sunday baseball case yesterday, holding that, according to the law, the management of the baseball club will have sixty days in which to file a petition for a rehearing, and that during that time the city will not have a legal right to prohibit the sport on Sun-day. President Golt, of the ball club, has assured the mayor that the petition will be filed next week, and with this understanding the city authorities will permit the playing of to-day's game. Mayor Taggart says however, that if the petition is not filed within the next six days he will not allow any more Sunday games pending a decision of the Supreme Court. Mr. Kern, in the opinion which he handed to the mayor, cites several authorities and rules of procedure, and concludes thus: 'Until the expiration of the time fixed by law within which the appellee may file a petition for a rehearing, and until any such petition, if filed, shall have been disposed of, the case remains open, and cannot be said to have been finally adjudicated."

Gardner, J. N. Steely, Frank Wells, S. H. Smith. Two Cincinnati Hoo Hoos assisted in the concatenation—A. D. McLeod, assistant general freight agent of the C., H. & D. Railroad, and Clifford Walker, traveling freight agent of the same railroad. G. H. Palmer, of Sheridan, was also present. No one is eligible to be a Hoo Hoo unless he is in some way connected with the lumber business or the freight department of a railroad. It is purely a social organization, and after the concatenation a banquet was given and Hoo Hoo joviality was poured forth generously.

Action of New York Presbytery Uncertain-Hicksites Presented with $100,000-Religious Notes.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

NEW YORK, June 3 .- It is the general belief that Professor McGiffert, of Union Seminary, will withdraw quietly from the Presbyterian ministry without compelling the New York Presbytery to put him on trial for heresy. It is known that in upwards of twenty presbyteries commissioners were put into the Minneapolis delegations who were, dianapolis preacher. There is the further reason that leaders on both sides have been trying for a year to bring about a better feeling in the New York Presbytery by having "quiet | in the matter. hours" and prayer meetings lasting half a day at the time. As a part of this retreat idea, more than fifty members are to g to Northfield in August to sit under Mr. Moody's preaching. It is not thought possible, therefore, that these conservatives, who went to Minneapolis to fight, retired in advance of the battle unless they had won, and to transfer the fight to New York. It can be further stated that Professor McGiffert is expected by his friends to go, if go he must, into the Congregational ministry. He is not inclined toward Episcopalianism

High Church Episcopalians admit that the Briggs incident is ended. No new society for defense of the faith has been formed, as has been reported, and it is not belived one will be. Some rather hot heads show an inability to cool off, but from the best of sources comes the information that high-church leaders, the real ones, think further agitation at this time both useless and un-

The gift is restricted to the Hicksite branch, although a clause is added to the bequest to the effect that it is intended for those "who bear testimony to the saving power of obedience to the laws of God in the heart." Practically, therefore, it is available to congregations in eastern Pennsylvania, New Jersey. New York, a few in Canada and some in Ohio and Indiana. There are many Friends in the two last-named States, but the Hicksites are not so numerous. The latter is by far the stronger branch in Phil-adelphia and New York, but its strength is confined almost wholly to these cities.

Presbyterians are about to undertake, through their home board that is now for the first time in years out of debt, new work in no fewer than four directions. They will establish in the Yukon valley three and perhaps four new mission stations. They are to establish one church in Porto Rico and plan to extend the work as rapidly as possible. Then, if the Prestyterians at home contribute the money, they will go into Cuba, toward which effort they aiready have some financial support. Lastly, they intend to make a large advance in work in the synods of Missouri, Kansas, Colorado, Iowa and Nebraska. They will do rado, Iowa and Nebraska. They will do some extension work on the Pacific coast.
